Coach, Player and Parent Conduct:

During YMCA game play, coaches, players and parents are expected to maintain a high standard of conduct and display good sportsmanship at all times. Yelling screaming, swearing, willfully violating rules, etc., will not be tolerated. This applies to before, during and after games. Once the game is over, it's over, done with, and you move on, no matter how unhappy someone is with the outcome.

The YMCA is about having FUN, experiencing positive competition, and learning the skills of the sport. Coaches are to be good role models at all times. Parents are to be supportive of players from both teams, and winning should be kept in perspective.

Whenever a Coach, Parent or Player displays attitudes, actions, and/or conduct that is contrary to YMCA rules, regulations and philosophy, the parties involved will be counseled by the YMCA staff.

Subsequent or continued acts may result in temporary or permanent suspension from the YMCA.
